We knew we needed to conduct a thorough a review of our tuckshop operation however as busy working parents we didn' t have the time or expertise to do so ourselves. We engaged Jocelyn after looking at a few different options and although Jocelyn certainly wasn' t the cheapest we thought she offered a more comprehensive review. We are very happy with the report, information, support and assistance that Jocelyn has given us.

We are slowly working through the recommendations from the review and are confident once we have completed all the changes that we will have a very successful tuckshop.

We would recommend any P&C engaging Jocelyn should you feel that your tuckshop operations need a review.
